

EGSM – SEASON 2 TRAILER

[Show Theme - Intro]

HELEN

Hello everyone! I'm Helen Gould, and welcome to season two of Enthusiasm: the Rusty Quill chat show where I and many other delightful and insightful people across the creative industries talk about our favourite things, from visual media and books to hobbies and interests.

Last season we talked about a ton of wonderful stuff, like improv, video games, cinematography, pirates, jazz, and oh-so-much more.

We've got another set of great episodes coming up for you this season, with even more lovely guests, including folks from across Rusty Quill and the RQ Network.

Plus for those who subscribe to the Rusty Quill Patreon, you'll still get early access to extended cuts of each episode - so if that sounds interesting, head on over to patreon dot com forward slash rusty quill.

And to everybody, welcome back to Enthusiasm - we'll see you in February 2022, wherever you get your podcasts.
