

2024 Annual Holiday Update Transcript

Hi all, Alex here,

As 2024 comes to a close we just wanted to take a moment to thank you for what has been an amazing year for Rusty Quill and give everyone an update as we head into 2025 and Rusty Quill's 10-year anniversary!

Firstly, some happy news for patient fans: we can finally reveal that Trice Forgotten, our well-loved found-family pirate adventure, is starting production in 2025 with its second and final season set to release on both the Neon Inkwell feed and the original Trice Forgotten feed! Nemo Martin and Rafaella Marcus are co-writing the project with Kazeem Tosin Amore (who most of you will know as Teddy in The Magnus Protocol, and Mark Antony in Cry Havoc) attached as director. We could not be happier to give our favourite seafaring, science-loving, shipmates the sendoff they deserve and we'll be providing more details on this exciting project as soon as possible.

Meanwhile, our Magnus Protocol production team are taking a well-earned holiday break whilst the 6th Rusty Fears competition runs. That means that right now you can find new episodes of fan-submitted short horror stories dropping on The Magnus Archives feed and once all six episodes have released, we'll be sharing a poll for you to vote for your favourite with the winner getting to write a case for The Magnus Protocol!

If that's not enough for you and you just can't wait for season two, we have already shared the season two premiere alongside official fancast streams with Kickstarter backers and Knight and Noble tier Patreons over at www.patreon.com/rustyquill. Not only that, did I mention that we are doing an original Magnus theatrical liveshow in 2025? Because we are doing an original Magnus theatrical liveshow in 2025 and it's called The Hilltop. There are a still few tickets available for the third and final performance but once those are gone you will have to wait a while for future showings at other locations so make sure you don't miss out on this first appearance! You can find out more at <https://rustyquill.com/event/>.

Now if you're in need of last minute gifts, and want to support these productions at the same time, remember you can always visit www.rustyquill.com/support for a full list of our official merchandise including:

As always, we are humbled and terrified by you (in a good way) and can't wait to bring you more of your favourite content in the new year. So until then buh bye, toodle oo, so long etc.
